Letter From Mayor Cumberledge

Hello Citizens,

Sweet Street is set for Tuesday, October 30th from 5:30 to 7:00 pm at the school. This is always a great time for the kids. Movie Night at the Library is set for Saturday, November 3rd at dark. Fall recreation is back on starting December 10th at the school gym from 5:30 to 7:00 pm every Monday and Wednesday until late March. This is a program the City Council and I wanted to bring back after being gone for many years.

The buzz around new businesses continues, but proposals are not firm enough to describe at this time. The Prairie Flower Casino Project is coming along nicely as well as the Ponca Smoke Signals' new building. They both will open around early November. The Lakeside Auto Recyclers' upgrade is in the final construction stage with the 9th Street landscape and new fence, plus all the other improvements they have been doing. The Country Inn & Suites Hotel is under new ownership and doing some upgrades to match the new hotels next to them. The La Quinta Inn is now owned by the same group and a new upgrade is planned as well.

I am working hard on behalf of our City and residents. Often, some of the best suggestions for keeping our City operating smoothly comes from the people who live here. This is why I want to remind you to feel free to contact your City Council member or me with any concerns or suggestions.

Finally, it is important to support and visit the local businesses we have; that is what builds our local economy. We recently lost one of our businesses, Sargent Peffers, which makes me sad to see them leave. I thank them for the time and effort they put into our community.

Sincerely, Mayor Ron Cumberledge

STORMWATER TIPS

Preventing Water Pollution is everyone's responsibility.

The effects of pollution:

Polluted stormwater runoff can have many adverse effects on plants, fish, animals and people.

Sediment can cloud the water and make it difficult or impossible for aquatic plants to grow. Sediment also can destroy aquatic habitats.

Excess nutrients can cause algae blooms. When algae die, they sink to the bottom and decompose in a process that removes oxygen from the water. Fish and other aquatic organisms can't exist in water with low dissolved oxygen levels.

Bacteria and other pathogens can wash into swimming areas and create health hazards, often making beach closures necessary.

Debris - plastic bags, six-pack rings, bottles, and cigarette butts - washed into waterbodies can choke, suffocate, or disable aquatic life like ducks, fish, turtles, and birds.

Household hazardous wastes like insecticides, pesticides, paint, solvents, used motor oil, and other auto fluids can poison aquatic life. Land animals and people can become sick from eating diseased fish and shellfish or ingesting polluted water.

Polluted stormwater often affects drinking water sources. This, in turn, can affect human health and increase drinking water treatment costs.

Carter Lake Police Department is accepting applications for the Shop with a Cop event to be held in December. Families in need are encouraged to complete the application that is included in this newsletter. Applications are also available at the Police Department. Deadline is October 19th.

The 2nd Annual Senior Christmas Basket Program will be getting underway this month. We are looking for volunteers to be part of this great project. City Hall will be the drop off point to collect donations to provide baskets of groceries that will be delivered to Carter Lake Seniors for Christmas.

Last year volunteers proudly delivered large baskets to 30 senior residents. We hope you will consider helping us reach a new goal to serve 35 households this Christmas season. A donation box will be located in the lobby at City Hall from October 1st to December 14.

Suggested items to donate are: canned fruits, vegetables soups, and meats; dry mashed potatoes, stuffing mix, cake and muffin mixes; healthy snack bars, peanut butter, popcorn, cookies, crackers and pudding packs; macaroni & cheese, hamburger helper, spaghetti sauce and pasta; boxed or hot cereals.

We will also collect laundry soap, kleenex and personal care products to include for each household.

Keep in mind when purchasing items to donate, these baskets will be delivered to 1-2 person households, so smaller portion sizes are preferred.

Cash donations are welcomed and will be used for the purchase of meat, bread, and other fresh food items that will be included with each basket the day of delivery.

If you are interested in being part of the volunteer group or know someone who could benefit from this wonderful gift, please contact Jackie at City Hall (712) 347-6320.

Betty Simmons celebrates 100th Birthday

A wonderful party on Saturday, September 8, 2018 for a marvelous woman of 100 years; a privilege not a lot of us are given. Elizabeth Betty Simmons had her Birthday Party at the Carter Lake Presbyterian Church with her son, Dennis and over 250 guests coming and going throughout the party. Her very long and extended family were there from different states. IA State Rep Charlie McConkley came and presented her a plaque on longevity. Long time friends, the Holtons, from MI, her doctor, our Mayor Ron Cumberledge and wonderful old friend Shirley Bennish all came to help with the event. Her friends & coworkers from the Senior Center Linda, Lanie, Robin, Marilyn and Tammy all decorated and served the meal while photographer Lindsey Hoskins was present to memorialize the whole event for her.

Despite a rocky international season, Thomas Gilman earns another world team spot

Cody Goodwin, Hawk Central Des Moines Register

LINCOLN, Neb. The sweat was still trickling down Thomas Gilman's face as he walked underneath the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Saturday night. It was hard to tell, though, because the former Iowa All-American was smiling wide, too.

A few moments earlier, Gilman had won the 57-kilogram (125 pounds) competition here at Final X. He swept Oklahoma State star Daton Fix, two matches to none by scores of 6-3 and 2-1, to earn a spot on the U.S. men's freestyle world team for the second straight year.

"I just did what I had to do," Gilman said. "That first match, I came out and did what I needed to do, and I won. The second match, I did the same thing, and I won."

The matches weren't the most aesthetically pleasing, but with a world-team berth on the line, winning is ultimately what matters. Gilman was hardly the only one to struggle offensively in his best-of-three finals series — of the 14 matches contested, nine posted 10 combined points or less between the two wrestlers.

But for Gilman, his results were a showcase of physical toughness and mental fortitude — and, perhaps to those outside the Hawkeye Wrestling Club, a surprise.

'Put two-and-two together'

Since his silver-medal run at the 2017 World Championships in Paris, the Council Bluffs native has struggled on the international scene. At the UWW World Cup in April, he went 2-2 — and one of his wins was a forfeit. At the Pan-American Championships in May, he went 3-1 and took third, dropping a tough 7-4 decision to Cuba's Reineri Andreu Ortega in the semifinals.

"Never any doubt," Gilman said. "I wasn't peaked for the World Cup. Is that an excuse? No. I wasn't peaked for Pan-Ams. Is that an excuse? No. I pushed myself back into competition after a life-changing event. It's not an excuse, but I had to stick with the process.

"This season hasn't gone the way I wanted it to go. My international career hasn't gone the way I wanted it to. I want to be like (former Iowa coach Dan Gable) — that's the standard: never losing. But sometimes, we have to be humbled."

That life-changing event? Gilman refused to offer specific details, but allowed that he's been, "Physically unhealthy — put two-and-two together."

He continued: "A good friend of mine, Bobby Telford, says all pain is mental — 'You're in pain because you let yourself be in pain.' That put me in my place. I was feeling sorry for myself when I wasn't healthy."

Experts pick Fix

As his underwhelming performances piled up, many of the sport's prognosticators felt that Fix, the Cowboys' true-freshman lightweight, could knock off Gilman.

Five Flowrestling writers (out of eight) picked Fix to win the series, as did writers at The Open Mat and InterMat. Another former Iowa wrestler, Tony Ramos — who lost to both Fix and Gilman in the last two years — thought Fix might unseat his old teammate.

Gilman silenced them all with a clean sweep, wherein his tough positioning, strength and savvy technique combined to resemble something of a brick wall against Fix.

Fix fired off many shots, but was met with Gilman's heavy hips and hand-fighting. Gilman had the only two takedowns in the series, scoring both in the first match. In the second, Fix nearly scored on a scramble when Gilman attempted a shot, but Fix failed to break Gilman's grip or find an angle with which to score, and the sequence resulted in a stalemate.

At the world team trials challenge tournament last month, Fix piled up 47 points in five matches to advance to Final X. Against Gilman, he mustered just four points in two matches — one two-point exposure, one passivity point and another on a push-out.

"Everything Daton does, he does well," Flowrestling's Mark Bader said on the broadcast. "It's just not quite as effective against Thomas Gilman."

'I'm still the guy to beat'

Afterward, Gilman walked underneath the Devaney Center and greeted the swath of media with a smile. Then he pointed to his temple and relayed some sage advice given to him by Iowa associate head coach Terry Brands as he navigated the last few months.

"It's in here," Gilman said, pointing to his head. "Terry Brands says, 'Six inches controls six feet.' I have to keep that in mind ... we don't need to reinvent the wheel. I know what to do out there. I just have to go do it.

"You always envision perfection, but it never turns out that way. You can't get caught up in what you envision. You just have to go out there and deal with the punches."

Gilman then picked up his wooden plaque and T-shirt and began walking toward a swarm of children waiting for him. He signed autographs — on shirts, on posters, on a massive picture of his likeness.

Despite all the struggles he's faced, Gilman was back in his element. He's headed to Budapest, Hungary, in October to compete at the 2018 World Championships. But that's five months away.

On Saturday, he allowed himself to revel in the moment.

"Everyone says I was down," Gilman said.

"You know, maybe I was.

"But I'm still the guy to beat."

NEW BREAKFAST SCHEDULE STARTING OCTOBER 2018

Our members have decided that we want to look at other fundraisers like the fish fry we did last year as an option which went over very well. We have decided to offer 3 Pancake Breakfasts to the public throughout the year. The fourth yearly breakfast will be for Pancakes in the Park (Mabrey) for the church service attendees only.

Here is our new Breakfast schedule.

- 1. Breakfasts at the Fire Station: February, May & October (1st Sunday)
- 2. Pancakes in the Park: July, at Mabrey Park ONLY for those attending the Church Service (Date To Be Determined, usually the 2nd Saturday).

On average, every day 7 people die and 36 people are injured in home fires.

- Do you have working smoke alarms?
- Have you replaced batteries in the past year? Do you test your smoke alarms monthly?
- Do you have a home fire escape plan?

The American Red Cross, Pottawattamie County Emergency Management and the Pottawattamie County Firefighters Association are working together to make homes safer in your community. In our effort to save lives and end home fire tragedies, we will be offering some home preparedness and fire safety opportunities.

By filling out and completing the bottom half of this flyer we will come out and install free smoke alarms as well as help develop an escape plan to prepare your home and family.

If you have any further questions or would like to learn more about the program please contact Michell Bose with the Pottawattamie County Emergency Management Agency at 712-328-5777.

[Please fill out and return the bottom half to your local school or city hall by October 1, 2018]

One of the most rewarding aspects of being a father is watching my children grow. It's hard to believe that my little princess, Everly June, turned 1 this summer. With those blue eyes, she is already melting my heart.

I serve on the "Fathers Matter" committee at Boys Town Iowa. Our goal is to connect children with their fathers and to provide education for fathers on leadership and their role as a parent.
